

WHAT ABOUT RESOURCES OTHER THAN COUNSELING ?

The EAP has a variety of professionals available to locate resources to help you free yourself from personal worries at work. Locating day care resources, help for elders, and convenience services are all examples of how the EAP can assist you with work life balance issues. The EAP also provides wellness publications for you and your loved ones.

WHAT DOES THE EAP COST ?

There is no charge for services provided within the EAP. Your company has provided short-term counseling, research, consultation and referral services for you, your family and your significant others. When necessary, you maybe referred to services that go beyond the scope of the EAP. Charges for services outside the EAP are your responsibility. In some cases, however, your health insurance may cover a portion of the cost of the services you require.

HOW CONFIDENTIAL IS THE EAP ?

No information, including your name, can be released without your written consent. The only exceptions are those required by law such as the duty of counselors to warn someone of a serious death threat or the mandated reporting of child and elder abuse.

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN I CALL THE EAP ?

Accessing the EAP is easy. Simply call the EAP at 1-800-648-9557. A counselor will be available to speak to you, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. The EAP counselor will gather some information, evaluate your needs, and suggest a possible plan of action. All you have to do is make the first call.

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT ?

The next step will depend on your unique situation. If you are calling about an emotional or family issue, the EAP counselor will always suggest a face to face meeting. This will give you a private opportunity to talk about your concerns in depth. This meeting will take place at a convenient, private office within thirty minutes of your home or work-site.

WHAT IF I NEED ADDITIONAL COUNSELING ?

The EAP provides short-term counseling, useful for helping you resolve many types of personal problems. In some cases, more in-depth counseling, support groups, self-help programs, or other resources may be necessary. The EAP counselor will help you find the right resources to address your specific problem and will refer you to helpful services beyond the EAP.
